SWEPT OVER THE FALL

TERRIBLE DEATH OF JOE DE COITO.

Was On His Way to a Funeral When Carried Over a 100 Foot Waterfall to His Death.

PAIA, Maui, March 8.—On Thursday morning a distressing accident occured in the gulch at the crossing from Paumotu to Kahanui. The crossing here is wide and generally safe, but this week the water was running a torrent and it was deeper than known.
Just below the ford, and not more than ten feet away is a big water fall, falling over large and jagged rocks. On Thursday morning a woman had died at the hospital at Paia, and her father and some relatives and friends started down to attend the funeral, thinking that the stream had subsided enough to allow them to cross. There were four in the party. The first man got across, though his horse floundered somewhat and was nearly swept off its feet. The second man, Joe de Coito by name, got to the swiftest part of the stream when his horse lost his footing behind, and sank down. The man clutched the saddle and tried to urge the horse up, but the next moment the current took the horse clear over backwards and they both went over a little fall just below the road way. This threw the man from the saddle, and he was struggling in the torrent waving and calling for help. Nothing could be done for him, as in a moment almost he was swept over the roaring falls and disappeared. His horse following him a moment later. The man who had crossed ran to the edge of the bank, and saw the bodies of the man and horse churned round and round in the seething waters below the falls for a least 5 minutes, and then they slowly worked out in the current and were borne swiftly down stream, and disappeared in the rapids below. Search was made immediately for them but without avail.
Yesterday the horse and the man's hat were found a short way down the gulch caught in the brush at the side, but the body of the man has not as yet been found. It is most likely down in some deep hollow, in which the gulch abounds, caught likewise in the brush. The dead man leaves a widow and seven small children. The widow is ill herself and the shock of her husband's death, has caused her friends to fear for her. Many of them do not think that she will live long.
It is a most distressing affair, and one that is hoped may not occur again.
For some time past the Makawao Road Board have been urging the necessity of erecting a bridge at Kokomo across this gulch, and it is hoped that this accident may bring it speedily to completion. Two other men narrowly escaped death at the crossing near Kokomo, during this week also, and were only saved by help being near, and the fact that the current was not so swift as below. It is a dangerous gulch in heavy rains, and every year traffic is cut off for days at a time, so the need of a bridge is very great.

ARRAIDED IN BEAUTY.

HONOKAA, March 7.—During a rift in the clouds of about two minutes on Wednesday afternoon Mauna Kea showed to those fortunate enough to be looking in that direction the finest coating of snow seen for years. The sides are deep, covered far down some thought down as low as 5,000 feet, but 9,000 to 10,000 is perhaps nearer the line.
The night was one of great beauty much of which will remain for some weeks after clear weather comes.

Taroena

Is a prepared food made entirely from taro by a unique process which preserves all the valuable nourishing qualities of the root. It is highly concentrated, thoroughly cooked and ready for immediate use. Unlike artificial food compounds, Taroena will keep in any climate for years after being opened. It is prepared under the most hygienic conditions and is completely sterilized. Taroena is essentially a pure, wholesome, natural food and is supplying a long felt want.

Taroena

Is rich in the phosphates. It is a wonderful nerve tonic and nerve fibre builder. It is the best of brain foods.
Business men who have overworked, and suffer from loss of sleep and appetite, nervousness, headache and a general prostration of the nervous system, will promptly improve on a diet of Taroena. Physicians who have prescribed Taroena in cases of this description, have been both delighted and astonished with the rapid recovery of their patients.

Taroena

Is absolutely unlike all other invalid foods in this important essential; it contains, placed there by nature, a distinctive ferment peculiar to itself. In no other way, than by the presence of a natural ferment, can be wonderful digestibility of Taroena be explained.
